INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Fund invests primarily in Buy-rated securities recommended by Veritas Investment Research Corporation (VIR), based on VIR's forensic-accounting based research. The balance of investments consists of securities identified by the portfolio management team as underpriced.

Securities are selected based on their potential for long term capital appreciation, using bottom-up fundamental analysis and a strict review of accounting and disclosure practices to identify companies with defensible competitive advantages and the ability to generate meaningful cash flows.

The Fund restricts its equity investments to long positions in North American listed issuers and may invest up to 10% of its portfolio in the securities of U.S. issuers. Portfolio concentration and risk are managed to minimize volatility and no single position will represent more than 10% of net assets. The Fund may use derivatives such as futures, options, warrants and swaps for hedging purposes to protect against losses or reduce volatility resulting from changes in interest rates, securities values or exchange rates, however notional exposures are generally small and never more than 5% of net asset value.

COMMENTARY

Class F units of the Veritas Canadian Equity Fund generated a 3.2% return in October, on strong contributions from our energy positions, including Suncor Energy (TSX: SU) (up 24.0% in October), Enerplus (TSX: ERF) (+15.6%) and Canadian Natural Resources (TSX: CNQ) (+13.6%).

The Fund's long position in SU was the top contributor to performance in October. SU reported break through free cash flow in Q3 that showcased the strength of its integrated positioning and consistent operations. SU's jump in cash flows have allowed it to double its dividend, buy back shares, and significantly reduce its debt. We expect similar cash surpluses in 2022, leading to further buybacks and debt reduction.

The second-best contributor to Fund performance in October was Canadian Pacific Railway (TSX: CP), as it posted a decent third quarter and its merger with Kansas City Southern (NYSE: KSU) moved closer to reality. We continue to see long-term upside in CP's share price, tied to both organic volumes and pricing, with additional value likely to be unlocked should the CP-KSU deal be approved.

Our goal is to buy the best companies in sectors where we identify positive investment catalysts, while avoiding poorly positioned companies and industry headwinds in sectors where we identify investment risks. We evaluate companies based on balance sheet strength; free cash flow sustainability; transparent financial reporting and governance; as well as the ability to endure periods of economic weakness.
