TOP PERFORMERS

Our top performer in the fund in May was Hudbay Minerals Inc. (NYSE, S&P/TSX: HBM) which reported strong first quarter results to begin the month, with revenues up 27% year-over-year and record-high Adjusted EBITDA of $421.9 million. Global copper demand continues to pressure supply, supporting strong copper prices over the near-term. Hudbay is set to benefit as it expects its copper production to average 147,000 tonnes per year over the 2026 to 2028 period, an increase of 24% over 2025 levels, supported by optimization at Copper Mountain in B.C. and throughput improvements at its Constancia mine in Peru.

The next largest contributor to fund performance in May was Bombardier Inc. (S&P/TSX: BDB) which secured major Canadian and Australian defence contracts during the month based on using the company's Global 6500 aircraft for arial surveillance. Growing balance sheet strength also allowed Bombardier to replace US$500 million in 7.50% coupon debt with new Senior 2035 Notes at 5.875%. Reduced debt costs and a growing order book support this year's free cash flow guidance of more than US$1 billion in 2026.
